To Whom It May Concern,

I am pleased to recommend Tomedes for their outstanding translation services and exceptional professionalism. Throughout our working relationship, they have consistently demonstrated a strong commitment to customer service, quality, and reliability.

Their management team is highly organized, responsive, and proactive, ensuring projects are handled efficiently and deadlines are consistently met. They are particularly impressive in their ability to remain flexible and accommodate urgent requests, even under tight timelines and demanding circumstances. Their 24-hour service provides an added level of support and reliability that is invaluable in meeting our business needs.

A special mention goes to Denis, the project manager, who has been an exceptional point of contact. Denis is professional, responsive, organized, and highly dependable, making it easy to coordinate projects and navigate even the most time-sensitive requests. His strong communication skills, attention to detail, and willingness to go the extra mile contribute significantly to the overall quality of service and make him a true pleasure to work with.

The team also demonstrates a strong commitment to accuracy and attention to detail, particularly when addressing revisions and adapting translations to specific regional dialects. They understand the importance of ensuring translations are not only accurate but also culturally and linguistically appropriate for the intended audience. Their willingness to incorporate feedback and make thoughtful revisions helps ensure the final product meets our expectations and requirements.

Communication is a key strength of the entire team. They maintain clear, timely, and professional communication throughout every project, making the process seamless and efficient. Their collaborative approach, adaptability, and commitment to meeting our needs have made them a trusted and valued partner.

I highly recommend Tomedes to any organization seeking a reliable translation partner that delivers outstanding customer service, excellent project management, meticulous attention to detail, and consistent results.

Thank you,

Kristina Scott
Senior Product Manager
Paradigm Math, LLC